

Let's Talk Month

Sample Proclamation

WHEREAS, healthy attitudes about sexuality are essential to raising responsible, self-reliant children; and

WHEREAS, parents are the primary sources of sexuality education for their children; and

WHEREAS, parents need support from family, friends, neighbors, schools, community organizations and institutions to instill and reinforce healthy attitudes toward sexuality; and

WHEREAS, "Let's Talk Month" is a national and statewide initiative that underscores the importance of a strong partnership between families and their community to help young people foster responsible and positive attitudes toward their sexuality; and

WHEREAS, working together, parents and their communities can provide the information and support necessary to prepare today's young people for their responsibilities as adults and parents of tomorrow;

Now, Therefore, Be It RESOLVED, The Ramsey County Board of Commissioners hereby proclaims October 2002 as "LET'S TALK MONTH" and commends this observance to our citizens.
