Cost: $25 includes continental breakfast, lunch and materials

This forum is designed for policy-makers, administrators, board members, nurses, counselors, teachers and social workers. Attend this training and learn:

- How the law protects access to education for pregnant and parenting students: Title IX is not just about sports!
- What we know about dropout prevention – best practices.
- What barriers exist for pregnant and parenting students?
- What about the boys? Young fathers also need support.
- What do pregnant and parenting students need in order to stay in school, graduate and move on to post-secondary schools and/or job opportunities?

You will have the opportunity to attend sessions on the following topics and more:

- how to improve graduation rates
- how to effectively coach pregnant and parenting students within the context of the law
- how to develop policy that meets the legal requirements of Title IX and benefits both your school and your students

Partial scholarships are available.

MOAPPP is committed to making this training available to all professionals who wish to attend. To request a scholarship application, contact moappp@moappp.org.

Certificates of attendance will be distributed at the end of the training event. Participants self-report continuing education credits to their respective state boards. Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities will be provided but must be requested at least two weeks prior to the training event.
