The Minnesota Sexuality Education Resource Review Panel Recommends the use of this flip chart for the following reasons:

This flip chart is designed as a teaching tool to educate 9-12th graders about sexually transmitted diseases (STDs). The panel found the information presented to be technically accurate and up-to-date; developmentally appropriate; gender, race, and culturally nonbiased; and “teacher friendly”. They felt that the flip chart uses sound education methodology and addresses the needs of a broad range of learners.

The panel recommends that this flip chart be used after an initial introduction or lesson on STDs. Although the information is good, some clarifications need to be made (e.g., difference between Herpes 1 and 2).
